Resolution adopted by the Chief Ministers of States and the Chief Justices of High Courts in a Conference held in New Delhi on 4th December, 1993 under the Chairmanship of the then Prime Minister of India and presided over by the Chief Justice of India

*“The Chief Ministers and Chief Justices were of the opinion that Courts were not in a position to bear the entire burden of justice system and that a number of disputes lent themselves to resolution by alternative modes
such as arbitration, mediation and negotiation.
They emphasized the desirability of disputants taking advantage of alternative dispute resolution which provided procedural flexibility, saved valuable time and money and avoided the stress of a conventional trial”.*

(3) A plea that the arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings.

(4) The arbitral tribunal may, in either of the cases referred to in sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.

Provided that the arbitral tribunal will hold oral hearing, at an appropriate stage of the proceedings, on a request by a party, unless the parties have agreed that no oral hearing shall be held.

¹[Provided further that the arbitral tribunal shall, as far as possible, hold oral hearings for the presentation of evidence or for oral argument on day-to-day basis, and not grant any adjournments unless sufficient cause is made out, and may impose costs including exemplary costs on the party seeking adjournment without any sufficient cause].

- (b) the respondent fails to communicate his statement of defence or the claimant fails to communicate his defence to the counter-claim in accordance with rule 19, the arbitral tribunal shall continue the proceedings without treating that failure in itself as an admission of the allegations made in the statement of claim or of counter-claim as the case may be ¹[and shall have the discretion to treat the right of the respondent or, as the case may be, of the claimant to file such statement of defence or counter-claim as having been forfeited].
- (c) a party fails to appear at an oral hearing or to produce witness or documentary evidence, the arbitral tribunal may continue the proceedings and make the arbitral award on the evidence before it.
