Resolution adopted by the Chief Ministers of States and the Chief Justices of High Courts in a Conference held in New Delhi on 4th December, 1993 under the Chairmanship of the then Prime Minister of India and presided over by the Chief Justice of India

*“The Chief Ministers and Chief Justices were of the opinion that Courts were not in a position to bear the entire burden of justice system and that a number of disputes lent themselves to resolution by alternative modes
such as arbitration, mediation and negotiation.
They emphasized the desirability of disputants taking advantage of alternative dispute resolution which provided procedural flexibility, saved valuable time and money and avoided the stress of a conventional trial”.*

POWERS OF THE GENERAL BODY AND GOVERNING COUNCIL

- 10.1 The General Body shall have the power:-
- (i) to consider the Annual Report and Audited Accounts of the Society, submitted to it by the Governing Council at the Annual General Meeting;
  - (ii) to appoint the Auditor and fix their remuneration;
  - (iii) to consider and approve amendments of the objects of the Society as proposed by the Governing Council;
  - (iv) to transact such other business as may be brought before it, with the permission of the person presiding; and
  - (v) to exercise such other powers exercisable by it under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 as applicable to the National Territory of Delhi.
- 10.2 The Annual General Meeting of the General Body shall be held, within six months of the close of the year, on such date, time and place as may be determined by the Chairperson.
- 10.3 Every Foundation Member and Ordinary Member shall have one vote. The representative of each of the Associate Members shall have one vote. The decision of the General Body shall be taken by the majority of the members present and voting.
- 10.4 An Extraordinary General Meeting of the General Body may be called by the Chairperson on his own accord or on the requisition of the one-fifth of the members of the Society entitled to vote specifying the subject matter to be considered. On receipt of such requisition, the Chairperson shall call a meeting within one month of the receipt of the requisition at such place and time as he may fix to consider the subject matter so specified. If the Chairperson fails to call a meeting as aforesaid, the majority of the requisitionists may call a meeting within one month from date of expiry of the aforesaid period of one month.
- 10.5 (a) The Annual General Meeting and the Extraordinary General Meeting shall be called by the Chairperson by notice issued under the hand of the Secretary-General or such other person authorized for the purpose.

- (b) Every notice calling a meeting of the General Body or Governing Council shall state the date, time and place at which such meeting will be held and such notice shall be served upon every member of the General Body or the Governing Council not less than fifteen clear days before the date appointed for the meeting provided that the accidental omission to serve the notice or the non-receipt of notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 10.6 The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the General Body and the Governing Council. <sup>1</sup>[In the absence of the Chairperson, the Executive Chairperson shall preside at such meetings and in his absence the members present at a meeting shall elect a person to preside at the meeting]
- 10.7 One-sixth of the total number of all members entitled to vote shall constitute the quorum for any meeting of the General Body or the Governing Council. If there is no quorum, the Chairperson or the person presiding, as the case may be, shall adjourn the meeting to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. Such adjourned meeting may be held even if there is no prescribed quorum:
- Provided that where it is not practicable to so hold the adjourned meeting, the meeting shall be called afresh to consider the agenda of the first meeting.
- 10.8 The Chairperson shall have the power to invite any person to attend meetings of the General Body and/or the Governing Council, but such invitee shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 10.9 All disputed questions at the meeting of the General Body or of the Governing Council, unless provided otherwise, shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairperson or the other person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote.

10.10 Any business which may be necessary for the Governing Council to transact, except such as is required to be placed before the Annual General Meeting or relates to framing, amendment or repeal of bye-laws, may be transacted by circulation among the members entitled to vote at a meeting of the Governing Council and the decision of the Governing Council signified by the signed approval by a majority of the members entitled to vote at a meeting of the Governing Council shall be effective and binding as if such decision had been taken at a meeting of the Governing Council.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SOCIETY

11. The Governing Council shall, subject to the provisions of rules 3 to 10, have powers to frame, amend or repeal any bye-laws for the furtherance of the objects of the Society and in particular to provide for the following matters, namely :-
- (i) Appointment, removal and resignation of the office bearers of the Society and of the members of the Governing Council;
  - (ii) Adoption of budget estimates, sanction of expenditure, transfer of property, alteration of investments and maintenance of accounts and audit;

  - (iv) Income from investments.
- 15.2 The Governing Council may, by resolution, authorize one or more officers to operate and maintain the accounts of the Society subject to such conditions as it may determine.
- 15.3 The Governing Council shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the balance sheet in such forms as may be approved by the General Body.
- 15.4 The Accounts of the Society shall be audited annually by auditors appointed for the purpose by the General Body and any expenditure incurred in connection with the audit of accounts of the Society shall be payable by the Society. The Auditors shall have the right to demand production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers. The nature of audit to be applied and the detailed arrangements to be made in regard to the form of accounts and their maintenance and the presentation of the accounts may be prescribed by the bye-laws.

CONTRACTS

- 16.1 All contracts shall be made and executed on behalf of the Society by the Secretary-General or such other officer as may be appointed or authorised by the Governing Council for the purpose.

INDEMNITY

- 17.1 The members of the Society and of the Governing Council shall be accountable only for such money, stock, funds, deposits and securities as they shall actually receive notwithstanding their signing any receipt for complying with any requirement, and shall be accountable only for their own deliberate or willful act of omission or commission.

- 17.2 No member of the Governing Council shall be liable for any breach of rules committed by the Society, except in respect of his own act or in respect of any property in his personal custody.

GENERAL

- 18.1 No act or proceedings of the General Body or the Governing Council shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any deficiency in or any defect in the constitution of the General Body or the Governing Council, as the case may be.
- 18.2 The Society may sue or be sued in the name of the Secretary-General or such other authority or officer as may be appointed for the purpose by the Governing Council.

SERVICE OF NOTICES

19. A notice to any member of the Society may be served upon him either personally or by ordinary means of communications sent at the address mentioned in the Roll of Members.

ALTERATION OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OR EXTENSION OF THE OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY

- 20.1 The objects for which the Society is established may be altered or extended as provided in the Act.
- 20.2 The Rules of the Society may be altered at any time by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the total number of members present and voting at a meeting of General Body called for the purpose.

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that no such resolution shall be placed before or considered by the General Body, unless it has been considered and approved by the Governing Council.]

We the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed hereto, being members of the Governing Council of the Society, certify the above to be correct copy of the Rules & Regulations of the Society.
