INFORMATION PUBLISHED IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 4(1)(b)-(i) to (xvii) OF THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005

(i) Particulars of organisation, functions and duties.

The International Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (ICADR) was registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 on 31st May, 1995. It is an autonomous organization now working under the aegis of Supreme Court of India with its Headquarters at New Delhi and Regional Centres at Hyderabad and Bengaluru. It has been established to promote, popularise and propagate alternative dispute resolution methods to facilitate early resolution of disputes and to reduce the burden of arrears in Courts. The objectives of the Society, inter alia, are as follows:

1. to promote studies in the field of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) and allied matters, and to promote reform in the system of settlement of disputes.
2. to undertake teaching and to provide for diffusion of knowledge of law and procedures on ADR and related matters and to award diplomas, certificates and other academic or professional distinction.
3. to impart training in ADR and related matters to those who are handling arbitration, conciliation and mediation;
4. to promote research and documentation in the field of ADR and publish books, periodicals, reports and other literature covering ADR;
5. to organize Conferences, seminars and study groups on issues concerning ADR;
6. to provide facilities and administrative and other support services for holding conciliation, mediation, mini-trial and arbitration proceedings;

7. to maintain panels of appropriate persons competent and qualified to serve as arbitrators, conciliators and mediators, or willing to serve in any other specialist capacity such as experts, surveyors and investigators;
8. to cooperate with other societies, institutions and organizations, national or international, in the pursuit of all or any of the above objectives;
9. to constitute Regional Centres at convenient places in India and abroad to promote the activities of the Society;
10. to draw up and prescribe rules of the Society for different modes of ADR.

The ICADR was inaugurated by the then Prime Minister of India on 6th October, 1995.
